

What Is The Most Expensive Home For Sale In Gilroy?

These private lands and vineyards in Gilroy await the next steward who values a step back in time, according to Redfin.

Eric He, Patch Staff

Posted Wed, Mar 30, 2022 at 7:09 am PT

GILROY, CA — This country ranch located on an 852-acre plot of land is the most expensive home listed for sale in Gilroy.

6545 Redwood Retreat Road, Gilroy, CA
$13,200,000 | Bedrooms: 6 | Bathrooms: 6.5

Back on the Market, this priceless country ranch is just south of Morgan Hill, a few miles from Watsonville Road on the Santa Clara Wine Trail and Redwood Retreat Road. A 852 acre private haven that has been in the same family since the late 1950s, with a beautifully preserved William Wurster designed main house that watches over the park like setting, surrounded by heritage oaks & serene gardens. Experience the gently rolling hills as you approach the main house on the classic gravel drive. The award winning 22 acres of vineyards produce some of the best known and sought after Santa Cruz AVA wines. The opportunity to create a farm to table lifestyle is all there! Bring your horses, explore the trails, round up your own cattle. Most of the property is in the Williamson Act, allowing for very low property taxes. These private lands & vineyards await the next steward who values a step back in time, close enough to enjoy as weekend retreat, summer place, or as a full-time ranch residence.

Listed by: Michael Dreyfus, Golden Gate Sotheby's International Realty